

WARNING, DISCLAIMER, AND INDEMNIFICATION AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT

You have received from Spiezle Architectural Group, Inc., 1395 Yardville Hamilton Square Road, Suite 2A, Hamilton, NJ 08691, (hereinafter referred to as Architect), the attached drawings, specifications and/or documentation (hereinafter "electronic files") that have been either electronically produced or transmitted. By opening and viewing these files in any way whatsoever, you agree, as the Recipient, to be bound by the terms and conditions of this agreement. If you do not agree, you are instructed to immediately return these files to Architect.

The Architect and Recipient agree as follows.

Architect and Recipient hereby agree the Recipient's utilization of the electronic information created by the Architect is for the limited use as defined herein and for the particular project with which the files are associated.

Recipient acknowledges the limitations and restrictions associated with these electronic files.

It is recognized by the Recipient that electronic files which are provided in such form may be altered such that the changes made are not easily recognized, and that data stored on electronic media and/or transferred via email can deteriorate, be corrupted, or be modified inadvertently, and that errors and anomalies can be introduced into the data from the use of software application packages, operating systems, or computer hardware differing from those used by Architect. Further Architect makes no representation, warranty of guaranty that the electronic files have any durability or will not damage or impair the Recipient's computer or software. By accepting and using these electronic files you acknowledge the above, agree that Architect is not responsible for any alteration or corruption of the data in the electronic documents, and release Architect from any and all associated liability, and assume all such risks.

The electronic files provided are Instruments of Service prepared by the Architect and the Architect's consultants, and the Architect and the Architect's consultants shall be deemed the authors and owners of their respective Instruments of Service and shall retain all common law, statutory and other reserved rights, including copyrights. The Recipient shall not provide the Instruments of Service or reproductions thereof to any person, entity, design professional, contractor, developer, municipality, zoning or planning board, or other governmental entity without the Architect's express written consent, except as specifically permitted herein. The Instruments of Service shall not be utilized by the Recipient for purposes of application to any governmental entity, design services by other design professionals such as Architects, engineers, planners, etc., bidding, constructing, renovating or demolishing the project, and/or as a representation, warranty, guarantee, or other inducement in any financial transaction or development deal regarding the project. The Recipient shall not use the Instruments of Service for future additions or alterations to the project or for other projects, unless the Recipient obtains the prior written agreement of the Architect and the Architect's consultants. Any unauthorized use of the Instruments of Service shall be at the Recipient's sole risk and without liability to the Architect and the Architect's consultants. The Recipient of these electronic files is advised that any unauthorized alteration to these Instruments constitutes a violation of the United States Copyright Laws and can subject you to both criminal and civil penalties. The foregoing applies whether or not the title block appears or not on the Instruments in the electronic files.

Additionally, in consideration for Architect's release of these electronic files, the Recipient hereby agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Architect and Architect's consultants from and against any liability, damages, claims, of any sort or kind which may arise from either the alteration or Recipient's use of the electronic files. Pursuant to the foregoing defense and indemnification provision, in the event that Recipient alters, changes or modifies in any way the enclosed electronic files without the written consent of Architect, Recipient agrees that it will pay all damages and expenses including attorney's fees which may be incurred by Architect or Architect's consultants arising out of a claim related to the enclosed electronic files unless and until it is established by a court of competent law or panel of arbitrators that the claim and the damages sustained by Architect were not the result of changes made to these electronic files or use of these electronic files contrary to the conditions of this release by the Recipient.

Recipient's acceptance, downloading and/or utilization of these electronic files is deemed to be an acknowledgment and agreement to the conditions and defense and indemnification provisions set forth above.
